Greetings Supporters and Prayer Partners,

Thank you all for your tender prayers. We would like to praise the Lord for the meetings that we have had this fourth.

I want to share something that I have been challenged with during my devotions. In Isaiah 6, after Isaiah answers God saying, “here am I, send me.” God gave Isaiah an interesting task. To paraphrase, He tells Isaiah to witness but don’t convert, reveal but don’t let them see, speak but don’t let them hear. These tasks seem like an impossible, Sisyphean request. Yet Isaiah did not question the task but asked “how long?”. Even then God replies with, to summarize, till there is no one left to hear. The task of deputation and missions may seem like an impossible task sometimes, but much like Isaiah it is not our duty to question the orders. It is to follow until God says to do otherwise. Whatever your ministry is, we encourage you to be faithful, regardless of results.

We have one last item of praise that we wish to share with you all. Back in September, we presented at a church. After the service, a man walked up to me and asked how much we needed to be fully supported. I told him and he said to make sure we were back that night. We were back for the evening service. After that night, the man walked up to me, handed me a check and told me not to even think about trying to talk him out of giving us that amount. We drove away from the church and looked at the check. It was one time gift to our ministry for a sizable 5 figure amount. God still does beyond what we would ever hope or dream of praying for.

I am so thankful for the lessons God teaches us as we walk along life's journey. Please continue to pray with us as we are starting to get more support and more meetings. Thank you all once again for your prayers and support
